ADDITIONAL INFORMATION The following items must be included with the application

- Two letters of recommendation. Both should attest to the applicant's potential, ability and character. Teachers, mentors, coaches or counselors should write recommendations. Those written by family members will not be accepted.
- A short video no longer than 2 minutes introducing yourself and why you want to be a part of the media internship. This doesn't have to be a traditional video interview. It can showcase your work in the arts, your style or the stories you want to tell. You do not need fancy equipment to make this video. It can be shot on a cell phone, using free apps (like iMovie, Splice, etc.) to edit if you wish. Show your creativity and personality!
- School transcripts.
